

Requesting Desk/Examination Copies of Course Textbooks

Please use the form below to gather basic information about the course textbook that you would like to request. This information is the bare minimum that any publisher will require before providing you a desk copy; individual publishers may request that you provide additional information. You may print this form to submit directly to the publisher or use the information to enter into the publisher's webform, depending on how the particular publisher accepts desk copy requests.

Locate the publisher's website and search for "desk copy requests" or "examination copy requests" for further details on how to obtain a desk copy.
