Keynote Speaker

Chaomei Chen, Engr '88 (MSE)

Trustee, Johns Hopkins University
Founder, Chaomei & Yu Consulting LLC
Former Chief Risk Officer, LendingClub

Chaomei Chen, Engr '88 (MSE), a retired business executive from the financial industry, lives in San Francisco. A leading expert in risk management and operations, Chen held chief risk officer, chief credit officer, and executive vice president positions at LendingClub, JPMorgan Chase Card/Wamu, Wamu Card Services, Providian Financial Corporation, FleetBoston Financial Services, and PNC National Bank/Card Division, where she was responsible for the company's overall risk management strategy and execution. She also previously held management positions at Household Credit Services, American Express, and Citicorp.

Chen served as director on the board of YRD Ltd and Propel(x). She also served as advisor at LendingHome, NYCA, Upstart, HCG, IceKredit, and Nova, among others. She is a member of the Johns Hopkins University Board of Trustees and a member of the Whiting School of Engineering's Advisory Board. Chen also serves as advisor for the U.S. Chinese Dance Association and is a trustee emerita for the San Francisco Ballet.

In the past, she served as a member of the Consumer Finance Advisory Board of TransUnion, a Steering Committee member of Edgar, Dunn & Company's Risk Managers' Round Table, a member of Fair, Isaac's Client Advisory Board, and a charter member of the Equifax Risk Advisory Council.

Chen has been a frequent speaker for various financial services industry forums, delivering keynote addresses internationally and domestically. She was cited in a Harvard Business School Case related to the successful turnaround of Providian Financial Corporation (707446-HCB-ENG).

She holds an MSE in mathematical science from Johns Hopkins University and a BS in mathematics from the Southwestern JiaoTong University, China.
